STUFF AND NONSENSE

Senator Fair was right heartily welcomed by Nevada, for whose interests he had been alert during this session of Congress. He has first rank amongst the business Senators, and that is why he always carries a practical proposition in the interests of his State.—Alta.

The above is the name of stuff and nonsense. Fair was not heartily welcomed here and never will be. When the train pulled out of Reno the Democracy filled the air with profanity as long as the train was in sight. This was because Fair allowed Pawning to monopolize his time instead of the regular old wheel-horse Democrats.

When Fair reached San Francisco he had a long interview published in the Chronicle, in which he quietly takes all the credit to himself for opening the Carson Mint. He let his foot slip badly, however, and showed what a bungling liar he was, by telling the reporter that he had personally interviewed every member of the Ways and Means Committee to see that the Mint was provided for. Now, the Ways and Means Committee have nothing to do with it at all; it rests with the Appropriation Committee entirely. Of all the awkward blunders this man has made, this is by far the worst, and yet his friends set up the clamor that he has more than the ordinary cunning of his kind. Fair has had no more to do with the opening of the Mint than Dobson's mule. He has neglected everything that pertained to it, and is now lying like a house afire to recover lost ground.

NO ROOM FOR IT.

Ben Butler says there is no room for a third party. The Times agrees with him and also wishes to state that there is no room for a third party in this country. Of late, whisperings have been going on that an Independent party would carry everything in Lyon. Republicans are cautioned to be on the lookout for this move as it means trouble and the working of a few Republicans for Jim Fair. There will not be the least trouble in carrying this country Republican if they will stand together. The county is Republican and if it elects Fair men it will be because some of the weak-kneed Republicans have succumbed to the seductive influence of the metallic substance contained in Jim Fair's sack.—Lyon County Times.

There is much talk about the corruptness of the Republican party on account of its use of money to elect its candidates. What's the matter with the Democrats? They are claiming right along that Fair will spend a half million or a million dollars to be re-elected. Is there anything corrupt about that? Now what is the use of anyone saying that a Republican can win with these odds against him? Let them elect for a Senator this Fall a man, who not only has good substantial backing but who is capable of filling the position. There are able men in the Republican party and a few in the Democratic party, but Fair is not one of them. He is simply a smooth and tricky wire-puller of the Adams order.—Lyon County Times.

Drury Malone ex-Secretary of the State of California is in a bad fix. He seems to have stolen about $12000 from the Treasury in four years. Now of course the Democratic papers make a great ado over the shortage because Malone was a Republican. He did not steal because he was a Republican but simply because he was a thief.

The APPEAL acknowledges tickets to the Ninth Annual Commencement of the St. Mary's Academy at Reno and also an invitation to be present at the Fourth Annual Dinner of the Racine College men at the Palmer House Chicago. As the affairs come off on the same day an acceptance of both will be impossible.

The Reno Gazette has positive information that Colonel C. C. Stevenson would make the campaign for Governor if nominated. He will make no effort whatever to secure partisans in the primaries, to fight other Republicans, but will do all his work against the other party.
